- E. SESSION SUMMARY:

The target individual is tall with a fair complexion. He is well educated and has been associated with the then Soviets in the past. He is very manipulative and coerces others continually. He is also bad tempered and extremely sure of himself.

He was either trained by the Soviets or has an expert understanding of a type of Soviet technology. I see him associated with water and electrical devices.

He is interested in or associated with small round and square objects which are wrapped with a frosted material like heavy waxed paper.

He is either also interested or has had training in "high strength/light weight material; also rolls of a chrcoal colored fabric or flexible material.

I sense that he is from an "ocean-side" kingdom or former monarchy.

At this point, the session was interrupted by the following unprompted perceptions.

UNPROMPTED PERCEPTIONS DURING THIS SESSION:

- There will be a natural catastrophe or a similar event of seemingly planetary magnitude hit a major west coast city; maybe L.A. It is as if a huge section of terrain is picked up and then suddenly dropped like a gigantic pie.

- There is an object which looks like a giant cylinder on fire poking hole through space.

- Something can be seen splitting open, like a giant ripe fruit.

- I see/sense a lot of bullets flying around after a tilting motion occurs.

- I see a lot of fires. Large sections of area appear as a wasteland from fires. The sky is a surrealistic color; almost as if the sky itself is on fire. There are waves of oscillating color and streaks. It appears as if a wall of fiery color is sweeping across a section of terrain.

- I see a hole being punched through a large object or section of earth as if someone taking a wooden stick and poking it up through the bottom of a pie or cake with the stick protruding out of the top.
